No. 63 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Monday Morning..... Sept. 8, 1856.

Saturday and Sunday.

Just before going to press, we obtained the St. Louis Democrat, of Saturday, 6th inst., containing a true account of the attack on Osawatomie—the destruction, massacre of the Doctor and his son—murder of State officers at Leavenworth, resulting in the death of the brave PHILLIPS, and the expulsion of the Free State settlers. Contrast this truthful narration with the cold-blooded lies of the Republican's account.

A Chance for Sam Rivers.

Gen. H. CARTER, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, N. Y., offers to bet $100,000 that if Jesse C. Fremont is elected President, that the Union will not be dissolved during his administration.

Here is a chance for the fellows who are proclaiming the country predicting a dissolution of the Union in case of Mr. BUCHANAN's defeat.

A Gift for Freedom.

Vermont gave a "drink for Freedom" that sent a thrill of horror into the souls of the Rush-Africans, and set them to preaching for slavery as they never preached before. Now she gives the returns head half the State. The other half will "shriek" just actually:

Counties.	Fillmore.	Fremont.	Keyser.
Addison	2,000	1,000	1,000
Bennington	1,500	1,000	1,000
Caledonia	1,500	1,000	1,000
Chittenden	1,500	1,000	1,000
Essex	1,500	1,000	1,000
Franklin	1,500	1,000	1,000
Grand Isle	1,500	1,000	1,000

Total Fremont vote		15,000
Total Keyser vote			15,000

The vote in Kansas, and thirty towns to be heard from will increase the majority to twenty thousand.

Missouri or Connecticut.

In the next Congress, 33 towns give Morrill, (Rep.) 1861; Chase, (Dem.) 1851; majority for Morrill 4795.

In the third district, 32 towns gave Hoyte (Rep.) 6961; Bingham, (Dem.) 2872; majority for Hoyte 3839.

The Republicans have carried all the Senates, and indeed all the Representatives to the Legislature.

In the 85 towns heard from the Democrats have elected but three, and the rest of one of these will be cut against! All of the other State officers are carried by the Republicans.

Meeting of the Tippecanoe Battle Ground.

Gentlemen who were present at the meeting of the Democracy on the Tippecanoe Battle ground, on Wednesday last, represent it as by far the most gratifying gathering ever held in the country. They do not talk of thousands, but hundreds of thousands, and the enthusiasm was as great as that which was displayed on the occasion.

The fortune is to travel the bigger it grows, and when one of the size of a bladder reaches the St. Louis Republican, it immediately swells to the dimensions of a balloon. Now the truth in reference to that Tippecanoe affair, is, the crowd, at no time, numbered more than three score ;—many good judges estimated it at under two thousand. It was not one-half, nor one-third as large a gathering as the Republican had a Meeting at Indianapolis. It has been ascertained by half a dozen Fremont meetings held in that State within a fortnight.

And let it be remembered that this was the Grand Rally for the Great West of the Buck-Africans. And their great guns were invited—and many came. Extraordinary efforts were made to concentrate the forces of the party on the campaign, but it fell widely short of the mark. "Hundreds of thousands!" forsooth! There are not 100,000 Buck-Africans in the whole State of Indiana.

Pro-Slavery Account of Affairs in Kansas.

The account of recent events in Kansas, copied from that most scandalous of all American newspapers, the Missouri Republican, is decidedly the coolest and most impudent relation that we have heard of late years. An ambuscade, and a fracas with which the writer acknowledges he had an army, himself among the number, from Missouri, marched into Kansas for the purpose of compelling the inhabitants of that Territory to submit to their will, and a bloody conflict ensues—but any wrong had been done by the invaders, the butchery of a few dozen Free State men, the burning of a village and the dispersion of the women and children, are carefully omitted—but indications of a state of public morals and the respect for others' rights on the frontier. We ask for the narrative the attention of all conscientious men; and after they have read it will they endeavor to say by what authority, other than that which seeks the highest purposes in his work, can Gen. Sherman be brought them in the field? and by what warrant have they assumed the regulation of the internal policy of the Territory? Admitting the account to be true in all its parts, which it is not, do all other scoundrels who wage war with a long rope and a high fall" in any civilized community open with the sun shines.

Senator Bayard in Indiana!

25,000 FREEMEN IN COUNCIL!

On Wednesday the 3d inst., while the Buck-Africans were holding a meeting at "Tippecanoe," 25,000 Freemasons assembled from the interior counties of Indiana, at the Wayne, and held a grand meeting in the beautiful grove adjoining the town.

Senator HENDRICKS, of Iowa, Judge MORRIS, candidate for Governor of Indiana, Ramsey from Minnesota, and others, addressed the vast assemblage from different stands. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. There were five or six beautiful stands containing 32 young ladies, representing the States, one of them drawn by six horses, others by 4 or 10 span.

Thousands and miles were everywhere seen and heard.

Long and loud were the shouts that went up for Fremont and victory.

A Shriek succeeded up on the ground, and notwithstanding the rain it was estimated from 20 to 30,000, all were immediately supplied, by the generous citizens of Shelbyville and the contributions of the numerous farmers and other friends.

This was a glorious day for the "Hoosiers" of Indiana, and will prove a terror to their Buck-Democracy resolved to destroy the people of that State into the support of Slavery.

One Good Fact Deserves Another.—A. B. Cooke, President of the Nashville (Tn.) Historical Association, telegraphs Mayor Wood, of New York, that, having noticed the statement that the yellow fever is prevailing to a dreadful extent at Fort Hamilton, he is authorized by the citizens of Norfolk to offer the services of as many experienced nurses, male or female, as may be wanted. The Norfolk people are anxious to repay the services rendered by New Yorkers during the prevalence of the plague last summer.

Houses or Rock Island.—We learn from the Rock Island papers that a most atrocious murder was committed on the person of a French citizen of some of Illinois, in the town of Rock Island, about two miles west of that city, on the Camden road. The name of the murdered person we are unable to give. It appears that he came to his end some days ago, and was found by his partners buried in the cellar of the house. Some of the females of this den having had some trouble among themselves, one of them, to be arrested, went in Rock Island, and divulged the dark secret. The body was then found as indicated by her, cut and mangled in the most horrible manner.

Private Hanging in New York.—It is said that there are not less than a dozen private residences in New York city, recently erected, which cost from $100,000 to $250,000 each, drawing in magnificence the royal palaces of Europe, and inferior only in point of taste, to them. The most elegant dwelling in the city is reported to have cost about $250,000.

Gen. Fremont not a Slaver.—It having been extensively circulated that Col. Fremont is a partner in the California banking house of Palmer, Cook & Co., one of the members of that firm published a card in a New York paper, declaring that the report was false—that he is not, in fact, of Col. Fremont's kind and has never been a partner in that house.

Mormons at Genoa.—Rev. The Milwaukee Journal of yesterday learns that, on Monday last the barber of the steamer Chesterfield was killed on the pier at Grand Bay by one of the Mormon converts, who had been employed on the steamer. The murderer was arrested and was lodged safely in the Genoa jail.

Death.—Long and loud were the shouts that went up for Fremont and victory.

PILES, PILES, PILES.—Piles neglected, often prove fatal, leads to consumption; among the parts these ignore a day with BALLETT'S PAIN EXTRACTOR. Every person in the country that treats the "Piles pyramid" with BALLETT'S PAIN EXTRACTOR, and strictly discharges to be the cure in withdrawn. It never fails to cure cases of any sort or virulence, new to all, frequently curing by one application.

Piles are known by the heat, fullness, and pain of the anus. Bleeding piles are generally considered worst, by the fullness of the blood vessels, which first press the intestinal canal right against the rectum and keeps the blood from returning up the stomach, similar to the blood boxed tight at the top of your finger when a string is tied tight around it; such is fatal, and for confirmation hundreds answer it every day. It is then you crave a perfect abdominal supporter, and wear a bandage to keep the intestines in their place. Then, and not before, also call it what you like and advertise for some relief, and maybe strong, and your life will be saved. To avoid all this, use BALLETT'S PAIN EXTRACTOR.

W. JENKINS, Esq., of Carpentria, Ohio, Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Carpentria Academy, writes that he has used BALLETT'S PAIN EXTRACTOR in his own family, and in numerous cases of rheumatism, sore throat, and piles, and has never known it to fail in a single instance. DAILY TRIBUNE

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WILLIAM W. PECK.....EDITOR.

Monday Morning, Sept. 8, 1856.

WANTED.—A boy at this office, one accustomed to feeding power press.

CHICAGO LIGHT GUARD.—A full dress parade of this company has been ordered, to take place on Thursday afternoon.

CROKERS.—We learn that the Chicago Cricket Club has challenged the Milwaukee Club to play in this city on the 16th inst. A spirited and well contested game may be expected.

WILD PIGEONS.—Immense flocks of these birds have been passing over this region for the last two days, in a south-westerly direction. It is a new sight to many of our citizens from the east, but not an unusual one in the west.

GERMAN CLUB MEETING.—On last Friday a large and enthusiastic meeting of German Republicans was held at Gardner, Rees's and Bichinger's store. Hermann Kreismann, Esq., made an able and eloquent address which was received with shouts of applause, and told well for the cause of Freedom. He was followed by A. C. Hesing, Esq., in a short and spirited speech which was repeatedly cheered.

NEW CONCERTSAIRE.—A new counterfeit made its appearance in our city on Friday evening last. They are fives on the Bank of Commerce at Fredericksburgh, Virginia. The counterfeit is entirely unlike the genuine, and the engraving is well executed, particularly the red letters on the back of the bill. It has for a vignette, shipping, a warehouse, &c., a figure 5 in each upper corner with a sailor, a flag in large eight corners, and a female and eagle in lower left corner. It is signed J. B. Finklin Pres't, and J. M. Herndon, Cashier.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Allen disposed of the following cases on Saturday:

Frederick Link, twelve years of age, was sent to the Reform School for a year on a charge of vagrancy. John Collins, a hackman, gave special bail to answer to a charge of disobeying the orders of a policeman. For being drunk and disorderly Patrick Farley and Anthony O'Malley were fined $1 each; W. P. Ware, John Rick, and Geo. White $2 each; Pat Rogers, John McLaughlin, Andrew Brady, John Williams, and John Murphy $3 each; Michael Burn and Michael Hickey $5 each; John Bosh, James Carroll, Mary Cummings, and Mary Dawson $10 each.

DISGRACEFUL.—Is it not, for a city of the size, wealth and great commercial importance of Chicago, to no long submit to having a portion of Clark street without plank or other paving. Ever since the re-planking of that busy thoroughfare, last fall, a small portion of it, south of St. Nicholas Hotel, has been left by the authorities, in a state of nature; and a more miserable piece of street, in a muddy time, could hardly be found elsewhere, even in any of the dominions of Mayor Dyer. Property owners have been taxed for planking it, without the work being done; and the city may yet be taxed to pay for loss of both property and life, caused by the condition of Clark street.

TUNE FOR THE HAND ORGANS.—Music is a delightful thing—that is, generally—and the dwellers in our goodly city love and reverence it quite as much as the denizens of other piles of brick and mortar. The greetings of a hand organ, however, sadly out of tune, such as constantly grinds beneath our window and sounds most execrable. In general, mankind is good-natured and rather than drive the poor wanderer from his daily bread will endure without much growl. But when the hand organ is out of tune and there is a broken barrel of melody is forced to "move on" to a point just within hearing. An exchange says that "at Leipsic there is held, each year, a great fair, which is usually visited by all the musical and half-musical fanatics of rebels to musical order, who play, not one key, but a bunch of keys—who resolve no discordances, but only resolve to be discordant, and delight to sent a final snipe on a disinclined fifth. The police there have been consequently invoked, not to put down bands, down enough, already, but to regulate them. They examine the candidates for street play, and test their skill in performance. A strolling musician must take his degree of musical doctor at the station-house of his Ward."

This plan is said to work admirably, and if, somehow or other, the grinders of the street organs could be made to tune their instruments, public harmony would be increased. Our present police are, to be sure, hardly to be trusted to time even a jewsharp, but then a number of men from detectives might be employed for this very purpose, thus affording an additional field for "native talent" to labor in.

RACCOON'S CORAL.—In this court, Saturday morning, the following prisoners were arraigned to plead to the indictments found against them:

John Charles Fremont for the late 'steward of the "Cleveland House," pleaded not guilty to an indictment for bigamy. His trial will probably take place on Monday.

William Dolinge pleaded guilty of breaking into the house and stealing a number of watches from John Schuh.

John Rockinowski was admitted to bail in the sum of $200, to appear at the next term, on an indictment for riot and another for false imprisonment.

Clark B. Alvord, indicted for larceny. This case was continued to the next term, the bail remaining as heretofore.

The grand jury concluded the business before them, and were discharged on Friday evening.—Among the prisoners in jail against whom indictments were found by the grand jury, the name of James Hirley, who, with his brother, Alexis V. Hirley, has attained an extensive notoriety in this city as a swindler in a small way. This pair of orange ostensibly kept an office on Clark street, until the Chicago came into effect requiring all such establishments to be licensed. Knowing that a license would not be granted them, they hit upon a new dodge, and hung out a sign at their rooms, corner of Main street and Wells street, in these words: "Blanking, Job, and Patent Medicine Depot."

We published a full account of their swindling a young man named Benjamin Hamilton, a countryman just from Bristol, Berks county, Pennsylvania, who came to Chicago, as many others come, in quest of occupation, and the sharp contrast made with him. After the latter fell to their office in a drunken spree, Hirley was arrested and the charge preferred against him, upon which he was held for trial. Lawless at once disappeared, and has not been seen since, so that no evidence was brought before the grand jury upon which a bill could be found against the patent medicine speculator. He will be at large in a day or two, and we shall expect ere long to hear of fresh victims being beguiled in consequence with some other scheme of swindling, the prime object of which is to pluck inexperienced country pigeons.

RECOVER OUR MONEYS.—The Young Men's Fremont Club had a brilliant and enthusiastic meeting on Saturday evening. The President of the Club, Mr. Richards, introduced the Hon. B. S. Washburne of Galena, to the meeting, who was received with repeated cheers. Mr. Washburne, after greeting the noble Representative of the First District, Mr. Washburne returned his sincere and grateful thanks for the cordial welcome he had just received from the young men of Chicago. He was on his way home from Washington, and had to take the 9 P. M. train, consequently his remarks were necessarily brief. He gave a hasty narrative of the protracted struggle between Northern Freemen and the combined hosts of Slavery, and depicted in animated language the fierce and fanatical contests, and brilliant victories obtained over the oligarchy and their Hessian allies in the Free States.

1st. The election of Banks, the little iron man, over the prince of slaveholders, for the second most important office under the Constitution.

2d. The appointment of the Kansas Investigating Committee, against the most violent opposition by the combined Slaveholders and Doughfaces, whose labors brought to light the long, black catalogue of atrocities committed upon the Free State settlers of Kansas, as well as the stupendous conspiracy to Africanize the boundless Free West.

3d. The defeat of the Douglas and Toombs' bill to make Kansas a Slave State, so cunningly concocted by those arch conspirators.

4th. The passage of the bill through the House, admitting Kansas into the Union as a Free State; and its wicked rejection in the Senate by Douglas & Co. Had the bill passed in the form, peace and quiet would have been restored to the Union and the next State would have gone on her way rejoicing, prosperous and happy.

5th. The River and Harbor Improvement Appropriations, which were extorted from the fears of the Buchanaiers, by the bold and determined action of the Republicans.

6th. The proviso to the Army bill—refusing money to the President to be expended in employing the United States troops to imprison the Free State people of Kansas into submission to Missouri Ruffians and their Democratic code, and the desperate efforts required by the Administration to defeat the Proviso, which was finally accomplished by a union of Fillmore Know Nothings and wigger-driving Buchanaiers.

The speaker eloquently commented upon each leading event of the session, and concluded with a beautiful paragraph on the Pathfinder of Empire—During his remarks he was applauded in the most earnest manner and at the close was greeted with loud and long continued cheers.

Hon. W. A. RICHEY, of N. Y., was next introduced to the audience. His remarks are exceedingly sound and able speech, reviewing the great questions at issue, showing the positions of parties in relation thereto, and presenting the opinions held down by the greatest statesmen in our country's history on the literary question. He expressed in a masterly manner the scheme of the Black Democracy to convert the nation and all its territories into a huge slaveholding confederacy, by which the rich few would own the laboring many, and trample the successful steps of the conspiracy from its inception with Calhoun, down to its present startling developments. His speech was heard attentively, and heartily applauded.

President SWEETZER, of Jacksonville, next addressed the audience in a brief, but telling speech. He defended the Republican party from the slanders, and his clear and eloquent thoughts. The cold once was unwilling that he should close.

PETER PAGE was called out, and made a few pertinent remarks.

LOMBARD and the Club sang admirably—they were encored twice.
